JOURNAL 1980

TAUNTON HIGH SCHOOL

TAUNTON, MASSACHUSETTS

There are places I'll remember all my life, though some have changed,

some forever, not for better,

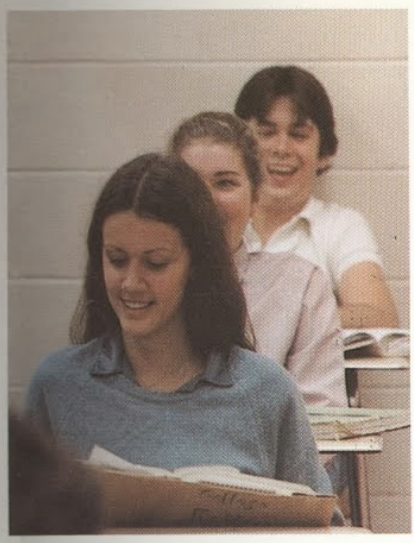

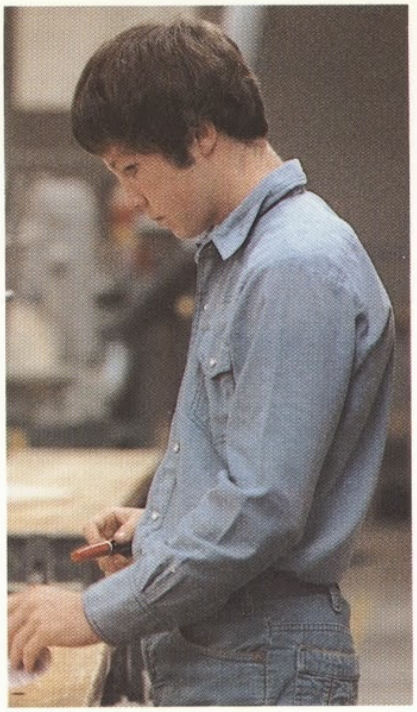

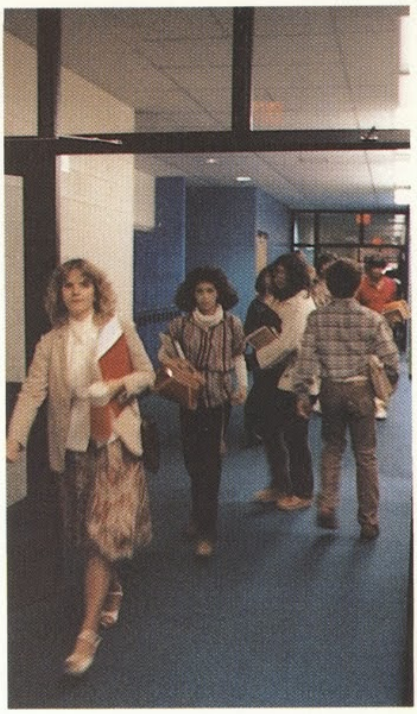

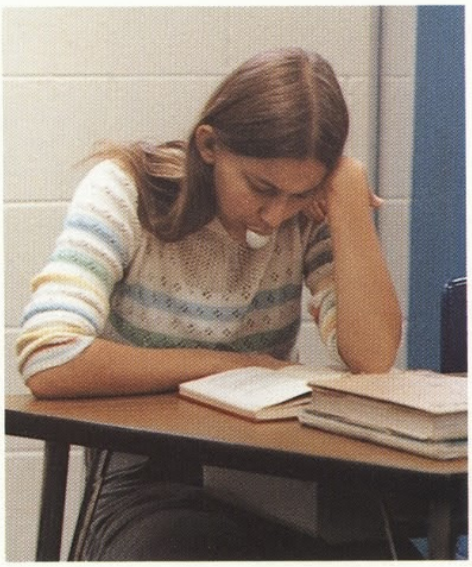

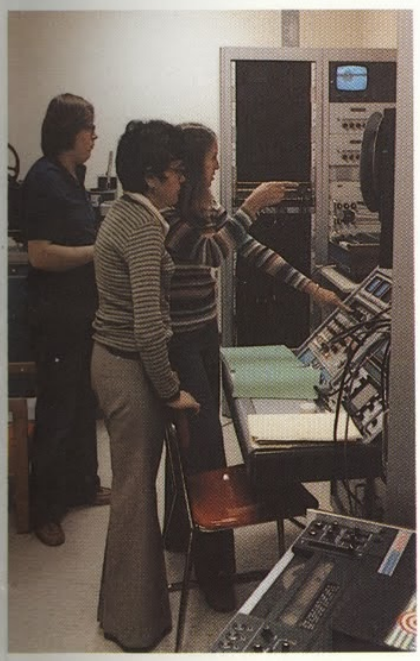

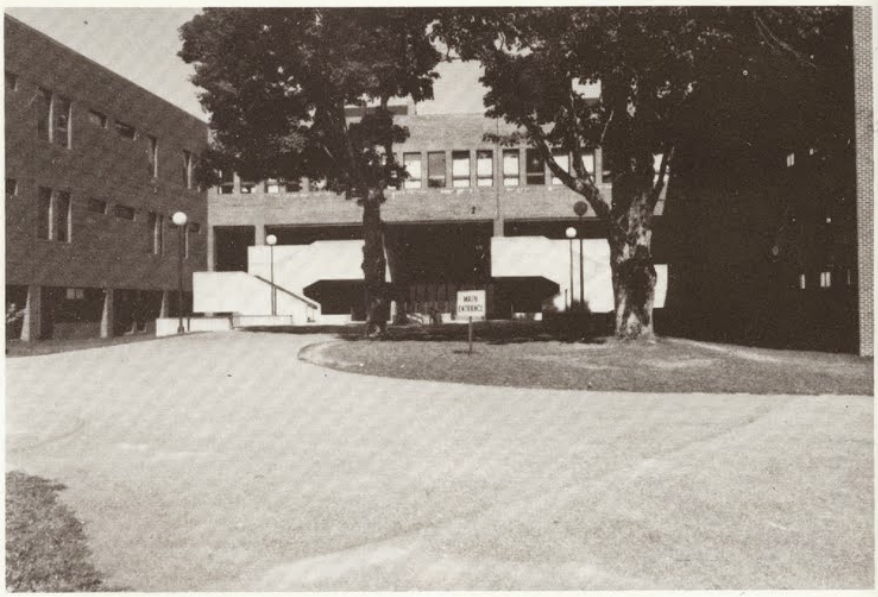

some have gone and some remain.

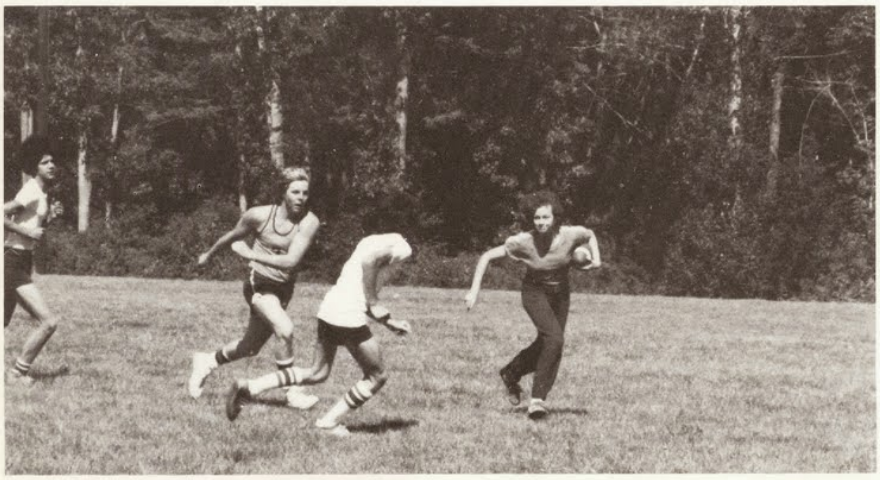

All these places had their moments,

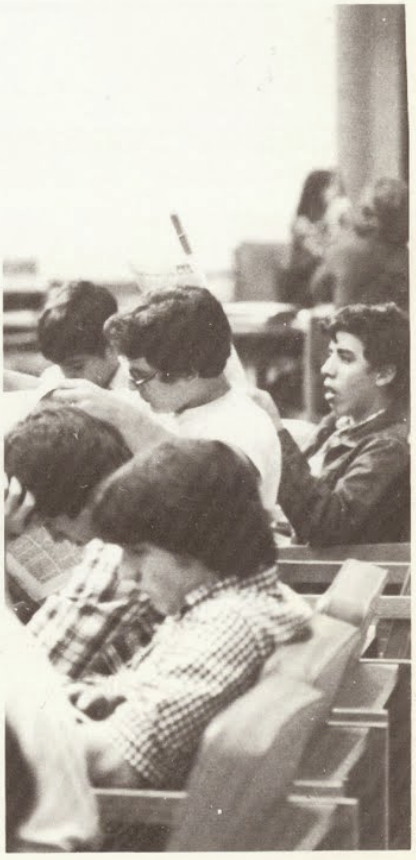

with lovers and friends I still can recall,

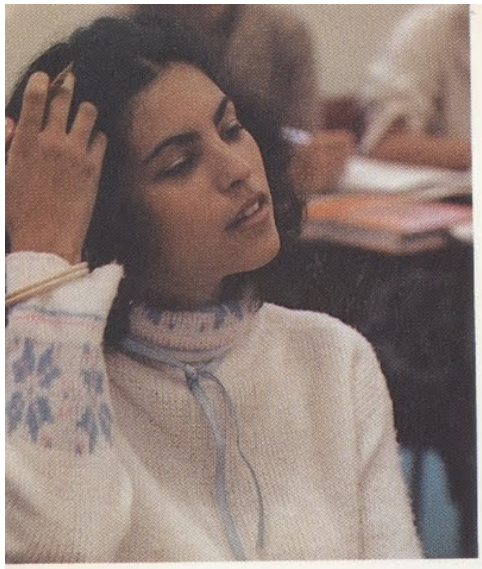

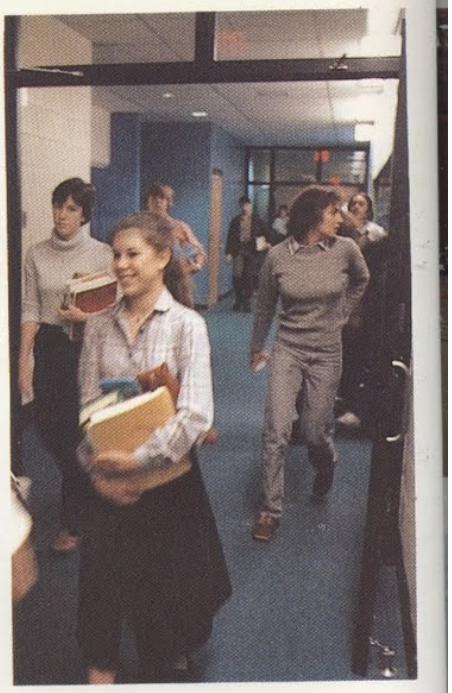

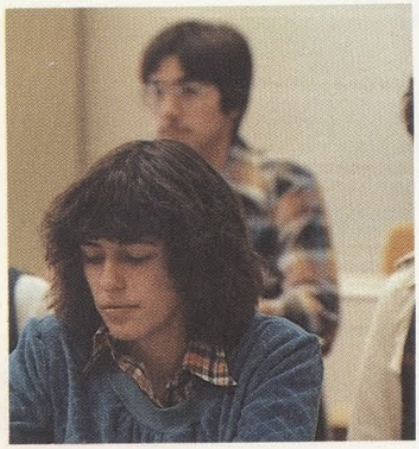

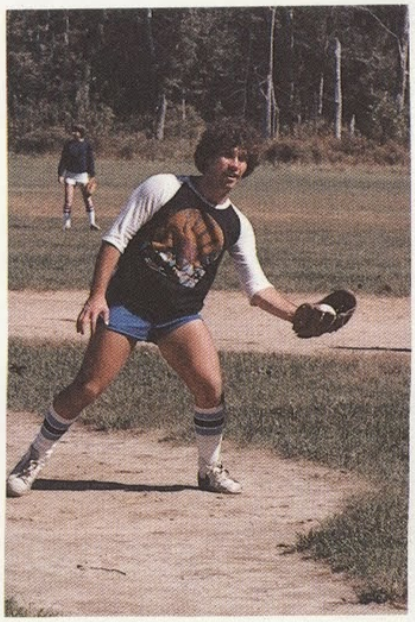

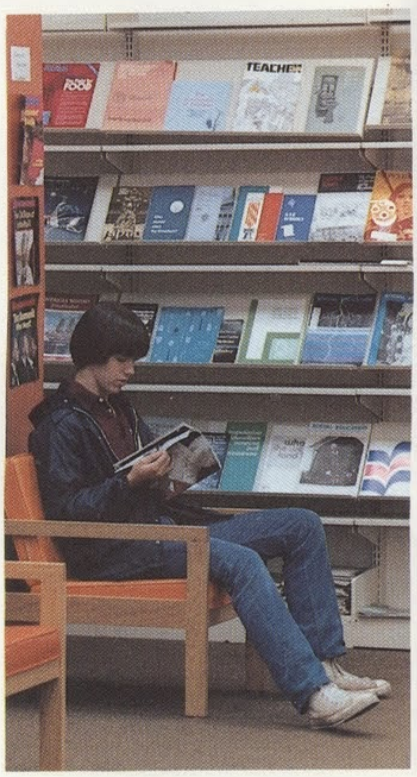

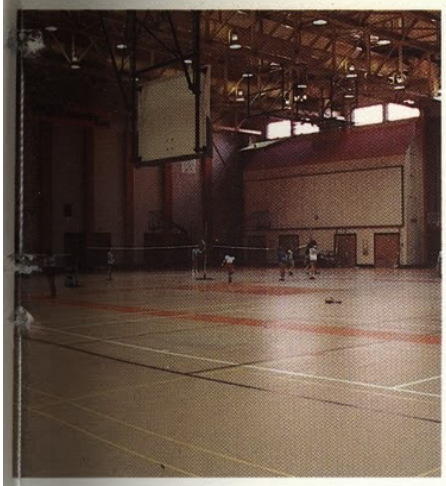

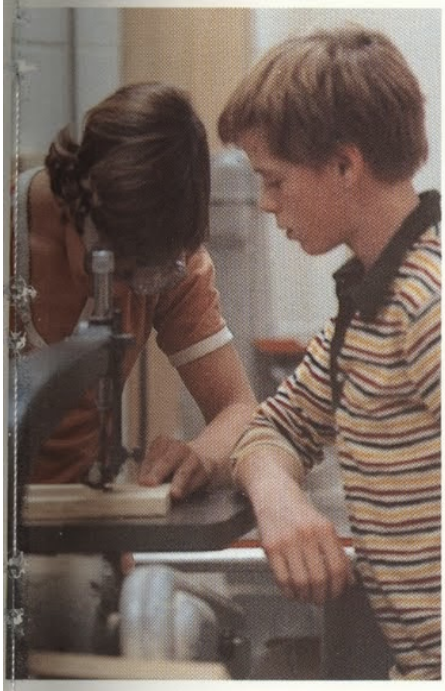

some are dead and some are living,

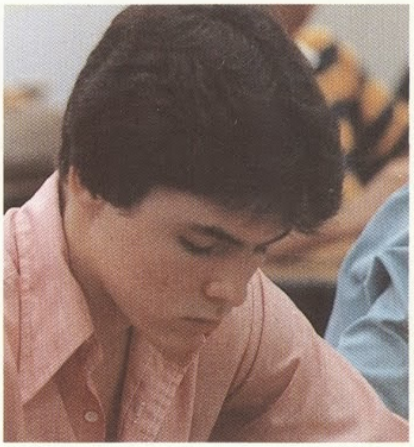

in my life I've loved them all.

I know I'll never lose affection for people and things that went before.

I know I'll often stop and think about them.

DEDICATION

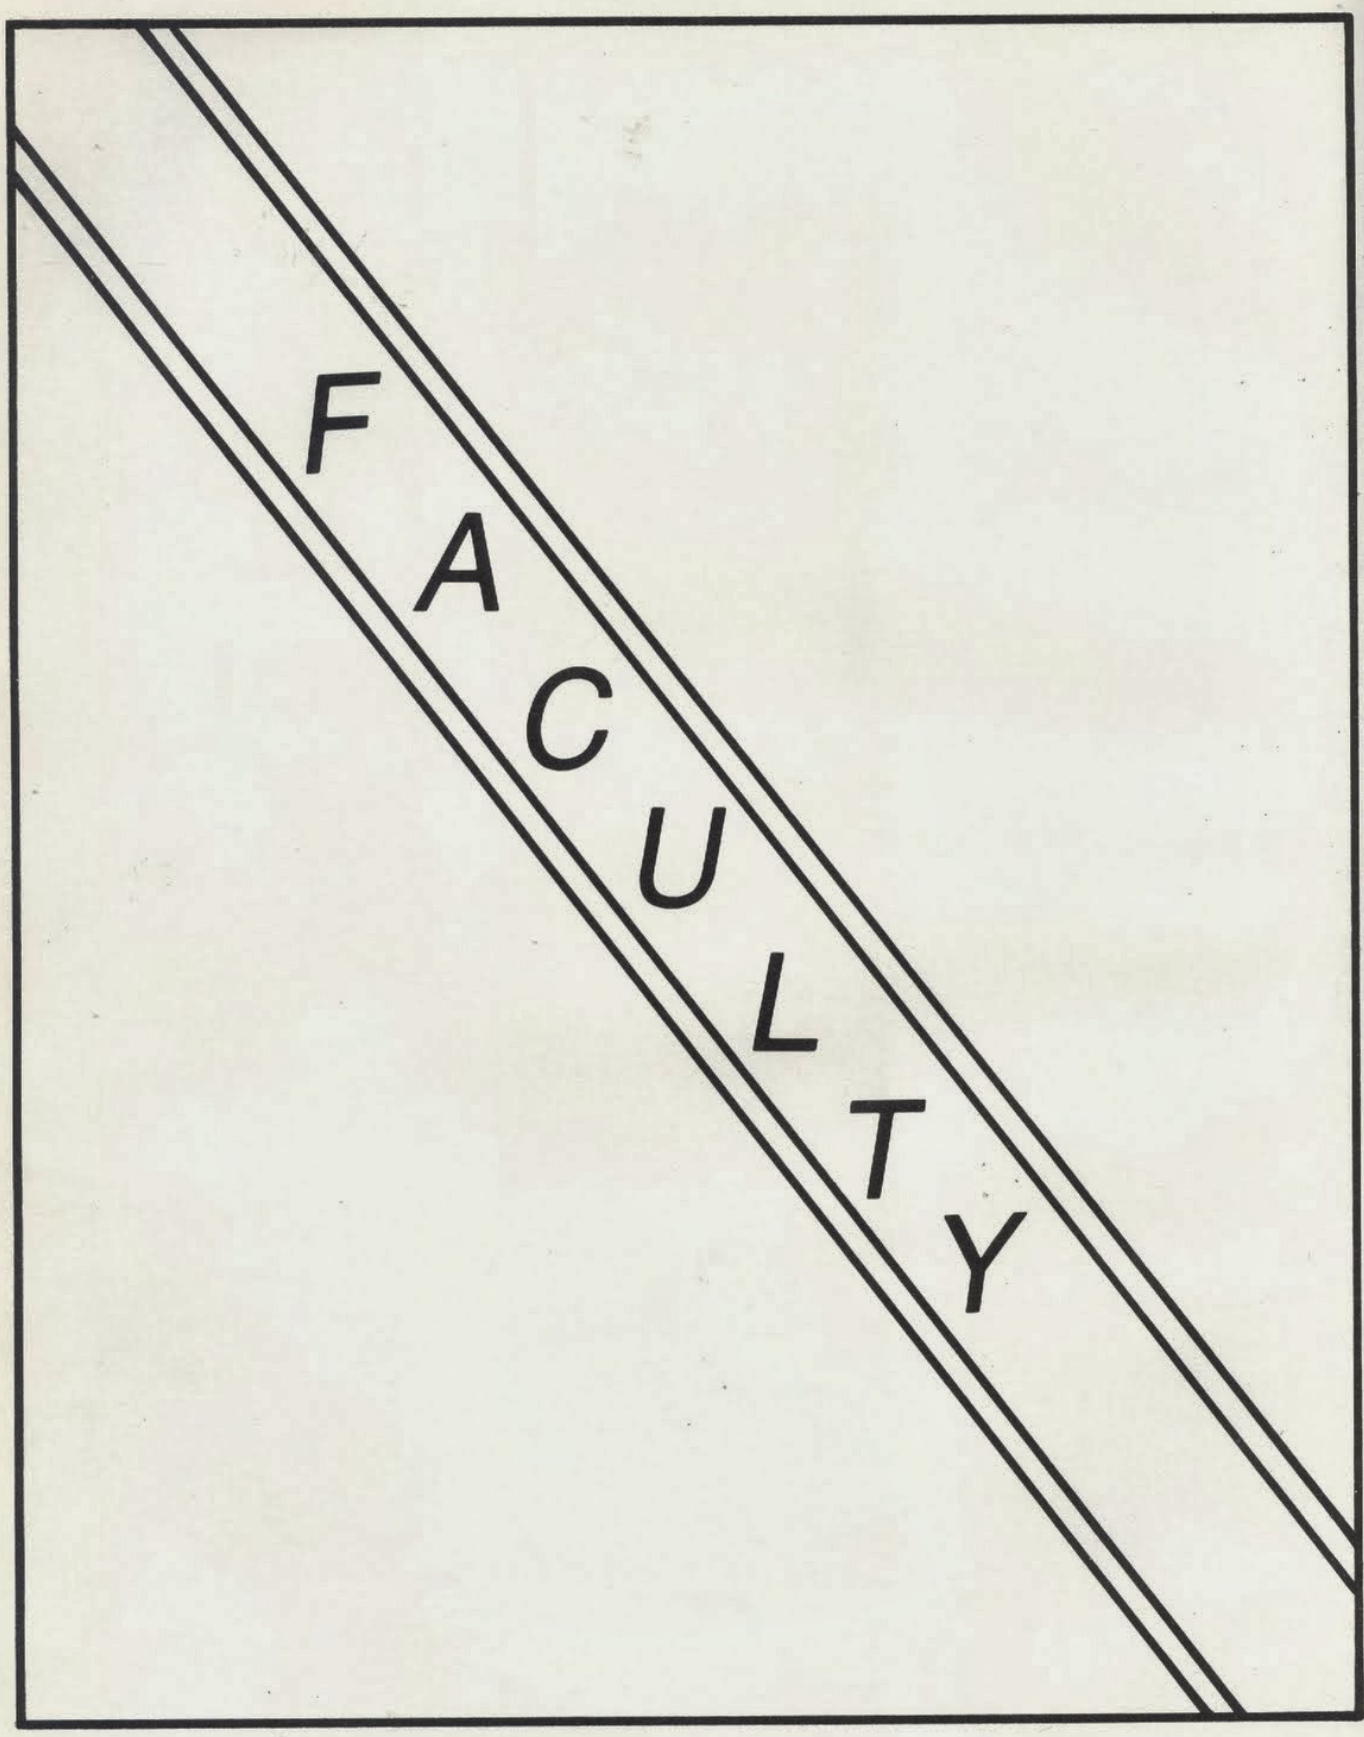

MS. JOAN ALLENCHEY

Ms. Allenchey,

For all the help and guidance you have given us these past four years, we, the class of 1980, dedicate our Journal to you. Your enthusiasm and genuine concern for us will always be remembered. It's not often we meet a person who is a teacher and a friend.

You are both.

With love and best wishes,
The Class of 1980

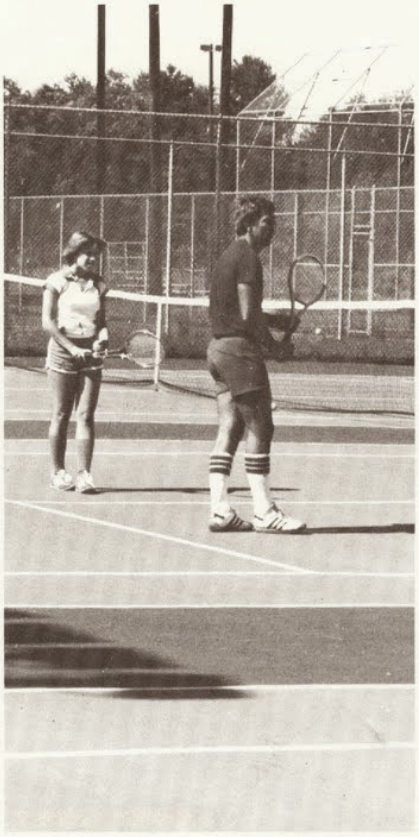

FACULTY

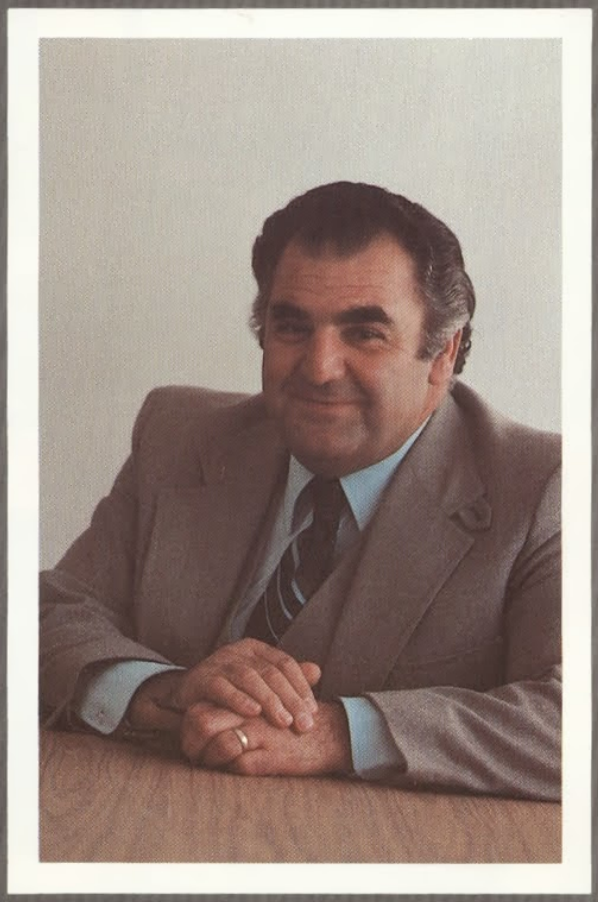

Mr. Peter P. George

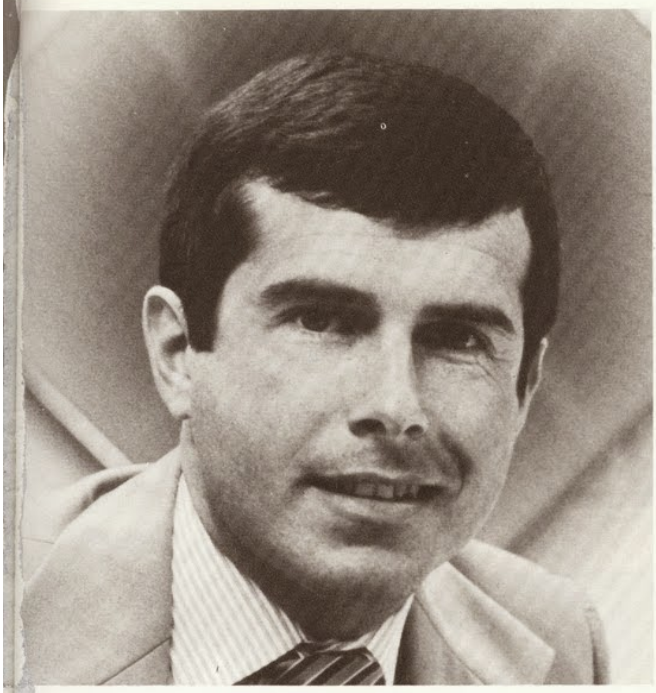

Together we have reached a milestone in your educational development — graduation.

The self-discipline and manner in which you have conducted yourself exemplifies the pride we have in our academic community.

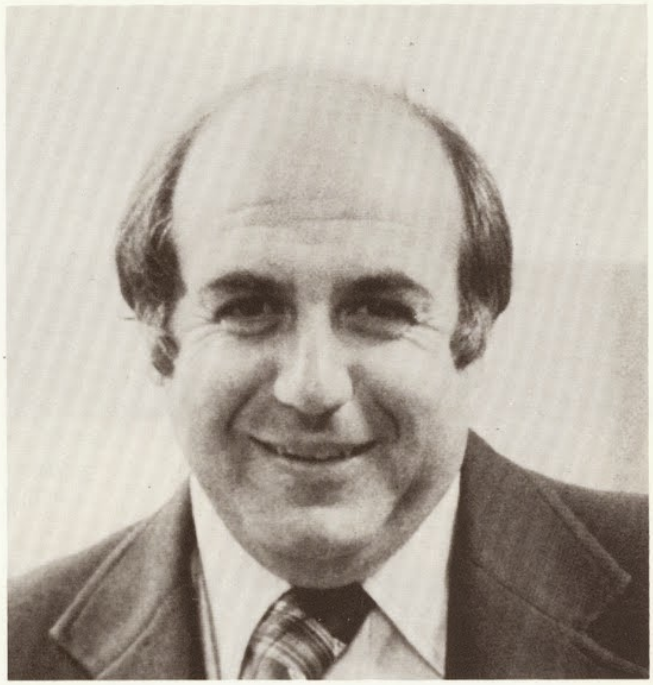

As you leave others the responsibility of continuing academic life here at Taunton High School, let us hope they continue to harbor within themselves this same pride.

May success and happiness be yours.

Suddenly it's dark
the breeze of the wind stops sharp
the sun goes down
All life stands still,
no sounds prevail,
nothing moves nor talks.
You look to see if you're living.
Your heart skips a beat
for you've realized
what it's like to be alone.
Observe! . . . now it's just you you're on your own.
Take a big step forward
and forget it Look back once —

Good Morning, Student!

YOU ARE WHAT YOU EAT!

The start of another perfect day, another perfect breakfast . . . with bacon and eggs as the entree, and nutritious cereal on the side, you've got all you need to start the day off right. On schedule as usual, you sip another glass of prune juice while pausing to reflect on the benefits of a good breakfast. Today you could climb mountains, forge new trails, boldly go where no man has gone before, easily become the eighth wonder of the world. And to think it all began with a good breakfast.

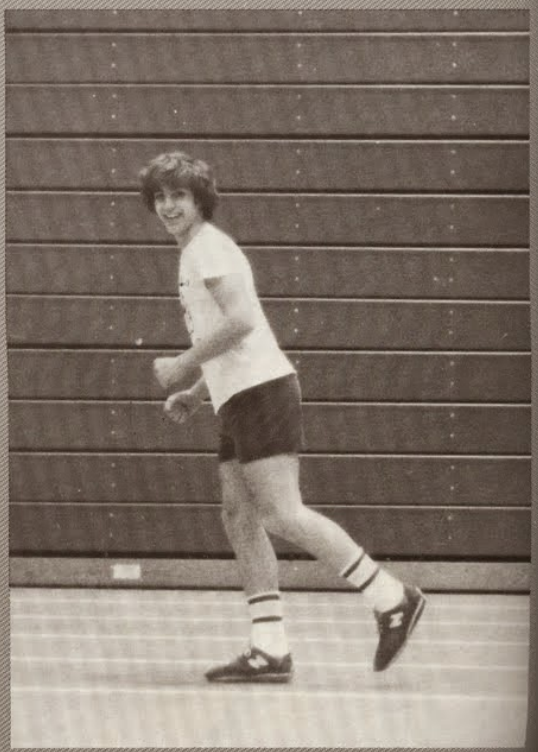

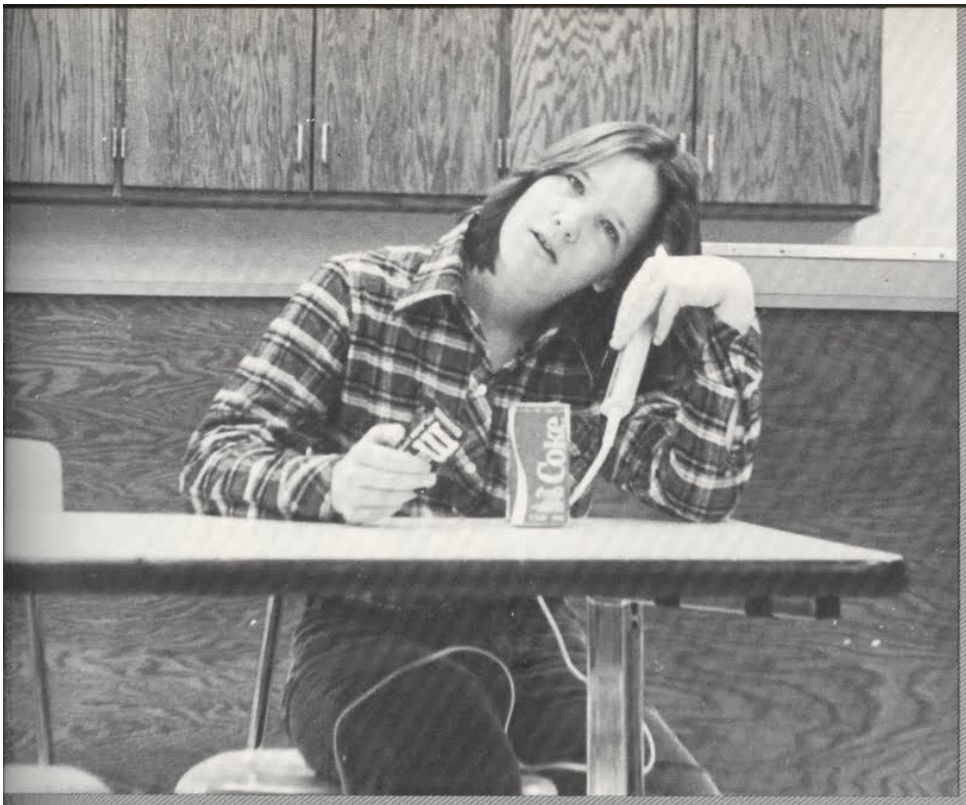

His arm goes up like a shot, and his mouth drops open in eagerness when his teacher walks in. "Oh Teacher, please Teacher, gotta say something!" shouts Ed. "What is it?" asks the teacher. "Good morning, dear Teacher!" (Chalk up another 10 brownie points for Ed.)

Standing in the doorway of his first class Ed radiates sunshine before the sun has even risen. Like an eager prize fighter, Ed awaits the bell which will signal the beginning of yet another mental battle.

With blood pulsating in his temples and tendons vibrating in his rippling bulging biceps, Ed strains to finish the last lap in his daily workout. Always in his mind is his idol, the Bionic Man, whose muscles brought him fame, fortune, and the attentions of one Farrah Fawcett.

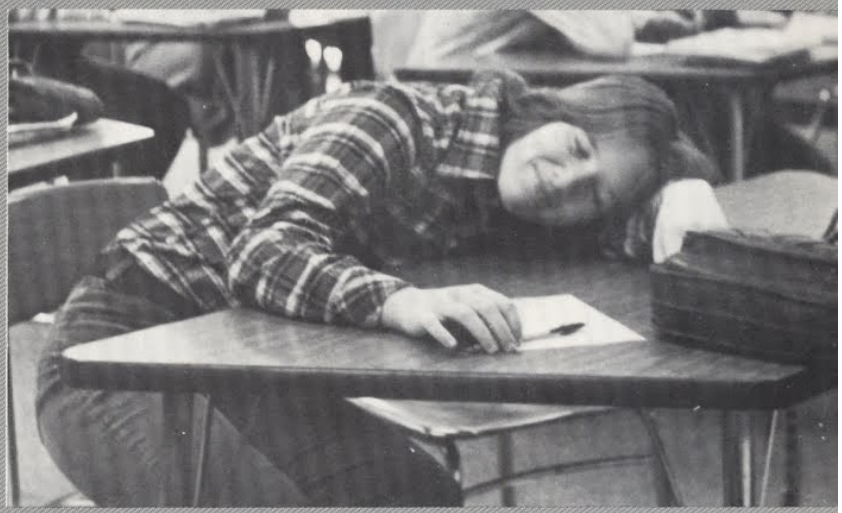

And then again . . .

YOU ARE WHAT YOU EAT . . .

It's the start of another rotten day, another rotten breakfast . . . your mother burned the toast again and the last of the milk is on the floor. But it doesn't matter . . . you weren't really hungry anyway. Besides, you overslept and there's only time enough to drink the soda you left out last night. Today you can't find the energy to climb the stairs, you'll get lost on your way to lunch, accidentally lock yourself in your locker, and amaze your teachers with how exhausted you look. And to think it all began with a rotten breakfast.

Thoughts of jumping jacks and sit-ups only increase Jane's hunger and fatigue as she sits in the solitude of the deserted lockerroom. Calisthenics never were a high point of her morning, but today Jane can't bear the thought of bending down and pulling up her socks.

Apparently becoming the victim of the mid-morning blahs, an exhausted Jane slumps over her English work. All desire of knowledge leaves her as she drifts off into dreams of glazed doughnuts. Obviously Jane lacks snap, crackle and pop.

Getting to class on time becomes a struggle for Jane as she takes a nap in the doorway of a room. A brick wall isn't as soft as a pillow, but Jane, in her weakened condition, hardly seems to notice as she sleepwalks down the hall to her classes.

OH BABY!

VOLLEYBALL

The T.H.S. girls' volleyball team had yet another outstanding season of emotionally-charged play, earning them a fine 8 and 2 record. This mark was good enough to win the team another division title, and thus a trip to the coveted state tournament. Coach O'Brien was quick to state, "I'm very proud of the way the girls played in the states; they really rose to the occasion, and even turned a few heads in the process." High hopes exist for next year's team, with a returning nucleus of 5 seniors and 2 juniors to carry on the T.H.S. volleyball dynasty.

1st Row: Coach Hyland, K. Emsley, K. Lewis, A. Fielding, M. Paulo. 2nd Row: S. Sunbury, K. Casey, K. Sullivan, T. Ross.

Sweet April Fool

The staff of the 1980 Journal would like to extend its deepest appreciation to Mr. Richard Januse our advisor, Mr. Arnie Lohmann, Dodge-Murphy Studios, Mr. Mike Marston, the faculty at T.H.S. and all others who helped make this yearbook a reality.
